Tax Levy For City Of Madison Up $6206

Slight Tax Rate Boost Expected to Cover Total Amount of $229,382

A tax levy of $229,382 for the city of Madison was approved Tuesday night by council members. The new levy is $6206 more than last year's levy which resulted in a $1,059 tax rate for $100 assessed valuation being collected this year.

The new levy will call for a slightly higher tax rate next year unless the city's assessed valuation is increased in the recently completed 1964 assessment.

The new levy includes $64,696 for general corporate purposes and $164,713 in special taxes levies. Last year's general corporate tax levy was $68,814, and council members noted that $25 monthly pay increases granted to employees cost $12,000 a year.

The largest reduction in the levy was elimination of $3630 for a police magistrate, no longer a city officer. The largest increase was $3100 for Illinois Municipal Retirement fund payments for employees.

Tax Levy Breakdown
A breakdown of the 1964 tax levy ordinance follows, giving the 1963 figure, first and the 1964 levy second:

Building Study Considered
Public building needs for Madison county may be studied by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission—if the board of supervisors agrees. The commission is sending questionnaires to county officials and will soon submit details of the survey to the county. St. Clair county has already approved such a study.

Iron Mine, Pellet Plant To Be Built By Gc Steel

Mining Firm Will Share $23,000,000 Cost Of Ore Development in Missouri

Granite City Steel Co. and Hanna Mining Co. have agreed to proceed at once with the joint development of a large iron pellet plant and an iron mine near the town of Pilot Knob in southeast Missouri. It was announced yesterday.

The two companies will invest approximately $23,000,000 in the construction of an underground mine, a beneficiating-pelletizing plant and auxiliary facilities. The project is to be in operation by mid-1967.

About 250 persons will be employed in the mine and in producing 750,000 tons a year of high-grade iron ore pellets for the 80-mile shipment to Granite City Steel's plant.

The plan for Pilot Knob was announced jointly by V. J. Marting, president of Hanna Mining, and Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman of the board and president of Granite City Steel.

Pellets are the most desired form of blast furnace feed in modern steelmaking. Veeder pointed out. Extensive test drilling shows that the Pilot Knob ore deposit contains a magnetite ore body that is exceptionally well suited for concentrating and producing high-grade iron ore pellets.

Hanna Mining Co. is the nation's largest independent producer and seller of iron ore and the main supplier of iron ore to Granite City Steel. Hanna's headquarters are in Cleveland.

Mill Preparing to Expand
Veeder said the Pilot Knob development was "one of the steps Granite City Steel is taking to improve the anticipated progress in manufacturing activity and in the demand for flat rolled steel in the 1960's."

We find a strong economy and excellent prospects for further industrial expansion in most of our market area, which extends south into Louisiana and Texas and north to Minnesota and Wisconsin.

The outlook is especially promising, we think, in our Southeastern market—the states of Missouri and Kansas and southern Illinois. Our plant is in one of the nation's transportation centers and ideally located for this reason.

First Employee of Dow Madison Plant Retires
First employee of the Dow Metal Products Co. plant in Madison, Henry A. Miller, retired Monday during ceremonial closing of the plant.

Miller said there was no money in the safe.

A burglar looted a cigarette machine of coins last night at the Mayberry service station, 501 East Chain of Rocks road, Mitchell, it was discovered at 5:40 a.m. today.

Soda and candy machines were tampered with but were not opened, sheriff's deputies said. The thief broke glass near the handle of an overhead door and fled.

Quick Solution for New Problem in Madison
There are no stop signs at Madison's Madison alley and motorists are trying to avoid stop intersections.

It was noted that the alley was not designed for fast travel, but merely for the use by slow moving garbage and trash collection vehicles and for use by Madisonians who have garages with alley doors.

Several solutions were suggested, including posting the alley with speed limit signs or stop signs or even by marking the smooth surface with dips.

The latest decision was for the installation of safety bumpers, extending the entire width of the alley with two in a block—each about 100 feet away from the alley exits—entrances.

The number of complaints has been mounting in recent weeks, Alderman Raymond Kozielek said as he introduced the problem.

8 Auto Accident Injuries; Bicycle Struck By Car
Eight injuries resulted from a traffic mishap in the Quad-City area this week. The number of accidents had reached 16 by noon today.

Kevin Koss, 7, son of William Kearns, 2336 East 24th street, was injured at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday when he was struck by an automobile as he rode his bicycle in the 2400 block of Lincoln avenue. The boy was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for injuries to his right hip, head, chest, shoulder and right elbow, and admitted for observation.

Police said J. L. Nelson, 23, of 2254 Lee avenue, driver of the car, told them the boy rode out of a driveway into the path of his car at 2437 Lincoln avenue. Nelson was headed west on Lincoln when he was struck.

Two Injured in Crash
Two persons were injured and one motorist was arrested as the result of an accident at Madison avenue and 22nd street at 5:40 p.m. Tuesday. Edward L. Lane, 35, of 2215 Lee avenue, was driving a 1961 Ford when he was involved in a crash with a 1961 Chevrolet driven by Mike D. Brown, 16, of 2260 Delmar avenue, also received minor injuries.

The accident happened when a car driven by Mike D. Brown, 16, of 2260 Delmar avenue, was driving north on Madison avenue when it was struck by a 1961 Ford driven by Edward L. Lane, 35, of 2215 Lee avenue. The cars were involved in a head-on collision.

Chamber to Aid In Dedicating Port Facilities

The Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce Board agreed Tuesday night to handle arrangements for dedication of new Tri-City Regional Port District facilities Monday, Sept. 28.

A related story on the port district activities is on page 39 of this issue.

Progress of port development activity was reported by Port Board Chairman Carl A. Banfi during the monthly dinner meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Current industrial development efforts in the Quad-City area were reviewed by the Chamber committee, which is currently reviewing a proposal for formation of a new Tri-City Industrial Development Corporation. No stand was taken pending receipt of the committee's recommendation.

Highway Welcome Signs
The question of buying or leasing billboards was assigned to the Public Relations Committee for continued study. Signs are planned on highways leading to the Quad-Cities, inviting travelers to visit, shop, work and live in the local community.

William Promotion Chairman William Thiele reviewed activities of his committee, noting that Quad-City tourist pamphlets were distributed at the festival Sunday.

GC Auxiliary Police Seek 100 More Men
A recruitment program to enroll more police officers is being conducted by the Granite City Auxiliary Police. The program was announced today by Clyde Myers, chief of the unit.

The program is to add 100 members and will have the first meeting on display at the park district's Labor Day festival Sunday.

The extra men are needed because of a federal requirement for two men to be assigned to every public fallout shelter. Myers explained.

State to Study GC Paint Stain Complaints

QUICK RECOVERY BY BURNED-OUT FIRM of Young & Greenwald, which this week began construction of a new building at 21st and Adams street to replace the one destroyed on Aug. 24. The new wall is on the left, while a part of the old building is visible on the right. It is hoped that production of steel culvert pipe can be resumed with renovated equipment by next week. The firm is the Quad-Cities' newest industry and began production with 20 employees just two weeks before the disastrous blaze. It made its first overseas shipment last week.

State health department officials toured the East Granite area, where most of the complaints originate. Tapes and filters from the machines to be sent to the state health department at Springfield to be analyzed. The information is to be forwarded to the federal Air Pollution Study group which is headquartered in St. Louis and has completed a year's work in a two-state Illinois-Missouri study.

The machine for measuring gas content of the air and another for measuring dust and dirt were installed yesterday and now are in operation in the East Granite area.

The state officials here Tuesday were headed by Richard A. Bartelbort, who inspected homes along East 24th, East 25th and Edwards streets and Lincoln avenue. Similar inspections were made Wednesday by federal inspectors.

City Inspector Jack Fricker and assistant William Jenkins were advised to instruct any Granite Cityans with paint discoloration or fume complaints to write to the state.

"The complaints are to be addressed to Clarence Klason, chief sanitary engineer, Illinois Department of Public Health, 616 State Office Building, Springfield."

Machine Locations
The second machine was placed on the roof at Sacred Heart school, 26th street and Washington avenue. There also is another one on the roof of the city hall.

Assistant City Inspector Jenkins said that when he was placing the machine on the Sacred Heart roof he saw another air measuring machine which he was told had been installed by a firm surveying for Granite City.

The machine received to measure gas was placed at Webster school, Kate and East 29th streets. Its tapes are to be read every 24 hours.

The city has been receiving odor and paint stain complaints for the past five days and is continuing to get them. Each complaint is being advised of the state's request to get the information.

Among the complaints received was one from Mrs. Mary Quilligan, 2808 Iowa street, who said the white paint on her brick house had "turned tan."

Mrs. Quilligan, a widow, said she tried soap and water this week in an effort to remove the stain, but finally settled for an abrasive cleaning powder "which partially did the job."

She said her neighbors' homes also looked like "somebody used a blowtorch on the paint."

15 Undergo Surgery At St. Elizabeth Hospital
The following are recovering at St. Elizabeth Hospital from surgery which they underwent Monday:

3 Cars Stolen Off Lots, 2 Returned
Three autos were stolen off parking lots at two local industrial plants this week, according to reports made to Granite City police.

Two taken from General Steel lot had been returned there this morning after apparent "joy rides."

At General Steel Industries, the 1964 white and green sedan of Roy Hays, St. Louis, was stolen yesterday, and at Granite City Steel Co., the 1963 red two-door of Robert Robertson, 3252 Rodgers avenue, also was taken. The thefts were reported five minutes apart at 4:30 and 4:35 p.m.

The third theft was reported Monday at 11:30 a.m. when a 1953 tan auto with blue fenders was stolen off the General Steel lot.

Willard Maxfield, 2508 Center street, was issued a permit for installation of a patio at a cost of $800.

GC Issues Permits For Restaurant, Coin Auto Wash

Building permits for construction of a new restaurant on Johnson road at a cost of $17,000 and installation of a $15,000 coin-operated car wash on Nantoni road were issued by Building Inspector Earl Bloomquist Monday, increasing to $165,275 the value of building authorized by 90 permits issued during August.

The monthly total was far below the $23,180 building value listed in permits issued during July, but the July total was increased substantially by a rush for home repair permits under a city waiver granted because of the April storm damage, as well as several large commercial projects.

Bloomquist also reported, in addition to the restaurant and car wash permits issued Monday, the filing of a supplemental permit in the amount of $27,201 for the Imperial "400" Motel. The permit is recorded as an addition to the original permit issued Sept. 12, 1963, when construction of the motel was begun.

Restaurant Location
Permit for construction of the restaurant was issued to Hubert Tempel, 2900 Benton avenue, for construction of a 44 by 28 foot building at 1537 Johnson road. The $17,000 structure is to be a one-story building of brick veneer. Contract for the work has been let to James Frey, 36 Oaklawn drive.

The coin-operated car wash is to be erected in the 3100 block of Nantoni road. The permit was issued to Donald Hargrave under approval of the Granite City council on Aug. 3. Value of the structure is listed at $15,000.

The car wash will be on the lot now occupied by the building housing offices of the Holsinger Agency, 3134 Nantoni road. The office building is to be moved later this month to a lot several hundred feet north, but the Holsinger Agency will retain the address of 3134 Nantoni road. A new street number is to be designated later for the car wash.

Slow Month for Building
Practically all building activity was slow during the month, with the apurt in activity developing during the final week. During the first week of August, all permits accounted for $31,367 in building value, while the second week produced only $21,540 worth of work. The third week recorded permits having a building value of $33,147, while the final week jumped to a total of $80,221, due mainly to the three commercial permits accounting for $55,201 of the total.

Only three other commercial permits were issued earlier in the month for a total of only $3740 in building value, bringing the total commercial value to $62,541 in a total of six permits. Three new homes were authorized last month with a total value of $33,096, while six additions to residences with a value of $8,000 were approved.

Nineteen permits were issued during August for construction of garages costing a total of $14,487. Of the monthly total of 90 permits for all purposes, 54 were for home repairs and remodeling worth $48,106. Two permits for miscellaneous type work valued at $840 were issued.

Garage Permits Issued
Permits issued last week include four for the construction of garages: Hubert Medford, 1820 Spruce street, to cost $750; Richard Wright, 3213 Rodgers avenue, $1000; Harold Wright, 731 Twenty-eighth street, $1000; and Wilbur Johnson, 1516 Rodgers avenue, $1300.

More Aid To Help Offset Increased School Spending

"How to succeed in cutting taxes," and boosting expenditures.

That is not really the title of a Broadway play, or even of this article, but it comes to mind with announcement that the tentative Granite City school budget is up $304,018 while the probable school tax levy shows a $32,477 decrease.

Budget and levy adoption are scheduled for Sept. 4 immediately following a 7:30 p.m. public hearing at the school district office, 2014 State street.

Factors affecting the budget and levy include state aid, a cash reserve and the timing of salary and cost increases.

Compared to $1,545,617 in the 1963-64 general state aid, the new year "is estimated at $1,737,904 (cash basis) or $1,775,088 (accrual basis), due to enrollment gains.

Balance Offsets Loss

The accrual accounting system used in the Granite City district shows an operating deficit of about $246,000 in the educational fund in 1963-64, but the fund had a $446,948 balance in mid-summer.

Employee salaries and wages are higher this year than last year, but the full financial impact of agreements made in June 30, 1965, will not be felt until the 1965-66 school year.

Some expenditures are deferred in accord with an economy drive aimed at holding to the previous educational fund tax rate of $1.75 despite voter authorization of up to a 40-cent increase.

Deducting state aid and other non-property-tax income, the school district is seeking $3,038,435 for educational fund, compared to $3,300,168 last year. The latter figure was somewhat "inflated" to assure using the full $1.75 rate maximum despite assessment fluctuations.

$238,000 For New Funds

The building fund levy is expected to total $436,920 (compared to $469,650), the transportation levy $34,854 ($37,716), municipal retirement fund $88,190 ($74,000), previous bond and interest levy $433,222 ($431,785), and new bond and interest taxes, $228,521 (referendum was approved for two new schools, two sites and two additions). Grand total is $4,300,242.

A breakdown of the probable 1964 tax rate, estimated at $2.4065 up 13.55 cents, shows $1.75 for education, .25 cents for buildings, same; two cents for transportation, same; 5.04 cents for municipal retirement, up .074 cent; and 39.01 cents for bonds and interest (13.08 for new bonds and 25.93 cents for prior bond issues), up 12.81 cents.

While the 1964 levy for spring 1965 collection includes the new bonds—first payment is due Oct. 1, 1965—they do not appear in the budget for the fiscal year, which ends June 30, 1965. The $7,137,926 tentative budget total consists of $6,074,039 for the educational fund, up $315,934; $438,420 for the building fund, down $31,490; $451,785 for the bond and interest fund, same; $85,500 for the transportation fund (not counting $82,000 provided from the educational fund), up $5384; and $88,190 for the municipal retirement fund, up $14,190.

Hope For Favorable Bond Bids

A favorable bond sale—bids are due Sept. 16—would reduce the estimated increase in the bond and interest tax rate.

And the educational fund rate may fall below $1.75 if assessments rises higher than $182,986,076. Actual 1963 assessment value is $182,144,630, and a 1% increase has been estimated for 1964.

A "realistic approach" based on past experience was used in estimating 1964-65 revenue with state aid now including funds for summer classes. A $1.75 rate would produce $3,219,000.

Cemetery-Park Meeting Tonight

City Inspector William Jenkins, who has the task of getting permission for the Catholic section of the old East Granite Cemetery to be converted for use as a "quiet park," said today he expects a large turnout at this evening's meeting.

Jenkins is seeking permission from Catholic families with relatives buried in the tract to carry out the changeover in cooperation with the Granite City park district.

The meeting this evening is set for 7:30 o'clock at Sacred Heart school, 26th street and Washington avenue. Jenkins has authorization from the Springfield Diocese to proceed with the plan provided families with relatives there give permission. If the meeting is successful, Jenkins said he expects the plan to be extended to include the Protestant section.

Town Road Budget Totals $93,757

The Nameoki township board of auditors met Tuesday night to review the annual township road report, appropriation and budget and to discuss progress of its sewer treatment project.

Charles Hanks, township road commissioner, reported that total estimated expenses for road improvement and maintenance for 1964-65 stands at $93,757. Hanks said the budget shows $38,085 for the road and bridge fund, $46,422 special hard road fund, $6550 special bridge fund and $2730 Illinois municipal retirement fund.

The budget and appropriation were unanimously approved by the board. It had been earlier submitted with the general township budget in March. State law requires a semi-annual review.

In other business the board authorized Supervisor Harry Briggs to contact the Lochner Engineering Co., East St. Louis, to estimate the cost of a sewer line from the board and the company to discuss progress of the township sewer project.

The board instructed Nick Vasiloff, town attorney, to prepare notice of the new township nuisance ordinance for the next meeting will be Sept. 21.

Eight-Month Statistics

6 Traffic Accidents a Day is Area Average

Traffic accidents are happening at the rate of six a day in the Quad-Cities area.

A compilation by the Press-Record of all vehicle mishaps shows that 1480 vehicle crashes of all types occurred in the first eight months of this year.

The injury rate also has climbed steadily since 1963, but the number of traffic deaths in the eight-month period shows a sharp decline from 24 or an average of three-a-month in 1963, to 15 for this year—just slightly less than two-a-month.

3 Injuries A Day

The injury rate has been averaging three-a-day this year, compared to 2.2 during the same eight-month period in 1963.

Increased federal funds under Titles III and V of the National Defense Education Act have been voted by both the House and Senate and have been referred to a conference committee for elimination of differences in the two versions of the bill, Sept. Johnson told the Press-Record.

The NDEA proposal extends equipment financial aid beyond mathematics, science and foreign languages to other subjects, and expands guidance assistance from the present seventh-through-twelfth grades to the entire school system.

Motorist Hits Parked Car, Faces 2 Charges

Dale Keel, 16, of 2502 East 27th street, was arrested by Granite City police at 4:45 p.m. Tuesday on charges of driving without a driver's license and making an improper turn following an accident in which Keel's car struck a parked auto at Iowa and 28th streets.

Police said Keel made a wide right turn from Iowa street onto 28th street and struck a parked car owned by Kenneth Copeland, 2737 Iowa street.

Jaycees to Aid Back-To-School Safety Project

The Jaycees met last night at the Tri-M Bowl and planned to assist the Quad-City Safety Council in a "back to school" safety program. Alex Dumoulin was appointed chairman of the program and a bicycle rodeo will be held in cooperation with the Bellemeade Shopping Center Association on Sept. 19.

A recent model airplane contest was discussed at last night's meeting.

Late in Arriving

August Was Wettest Month For Quad-Cities Since April

August turned out to be the wettest month in the Quad-City area since April — and the first month since April to reach its normal rainfall quota — but the welcome rains came too late to save a big part of the area's corn, soybeans and truck-farm crops that had been blighted by a three-month drought and almost 30 consecutive days without a drop of rain.

As the month ended the gauge at the Chain of Rocks canal locks showed a total rainfall of 3.24 inches for the Quad-City area — of which 3.13 inches fell in a period of five days beginning Aug. 21. The 3.24-inch total was 22 of an inch above the August normal of 3.02 and the first time in more than three months that a normal monthly fall was recorded.

That was in April when a total of 4.25 inches of rain was recorded against a normal of 3.71 inches for that month. During May there was only 2.79 inches of rain against a 3.71-inch normal, and in June, one of the skimpiest rainfall records of the year of only 1.42 inch was recorded. Normal for June is 4.29 inches.

July also fell far short of the normal rainfall of 3.30 inches with only 2.59 inches recorded. By that time the area already was five inches below normal for the year. From July 22 until Aug. 21 only .16 inch of rain was registered.

During August the first and the first time in more than three months that a normal monthly fall was recorded.

On Aug. 2 when a slight .06 of an inch was recorded. Traces were reported on Aug. 5, 14 and 15. The first heavy rain in several months occurred on Aug. 21 when 1.92 inch fell in a 24-hour period, with another .61 of an inch recorded the following day. On Aug. 25 rainfall measuring .28 of an inch was registered and 32 of an inch was measured on Aug. 26, making a total of 3.13 inches within five days.

Farm officials reported that the Aug. 21 and subsequent rainfall might help some hay and pasture crops, but it was far too late to save at least 50% of the corn and soybean crop and much of the truck crops. Officials already had taken steps to have Madison county farm sections included in a disaster area of 55 counties.

While the rain may have arrived too late for some farm crops, it did much for parched lawns and shrubbery, and grass seemed to shoot upward overnight. Within a few days, power mowers were humming once again over lawns that hadn't sprouted but a few inches of grass in more than a month.

Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307 will hold a public installation of officers Sept. 10 at the Legion home in Venice.

Those taking office will be Fred Harrison, commander; Charles Foster, senior vice commander; Harold Gardner, junior vice commander; George Wilson, finance officer; John Hillmer, historian; and Leroy Perry, John Gortemmer and Irving Simmons, trustees.

A free dance from 8-12 will follow the installation and music will be donated by Musicians Local 717.

Street Department Painting School Crosswalk Markings

A Granite City street department crew began this week to paint warning signs and crosswalk stripes on major thoroughfares in the vicinity of schools.

Supt. of Streets William Warfield said that while the major portion of the crosswalk striping is awarded to a private contractor, his department has always carried out the work on major thoroughfares.

This year, the private contractor, a Wood River firm, will get off to a late start because the contract award was not made until last week by the city. The work is scheduled for the week of Sept. 14 unless arrangements can be made to speed up the work.

Warfield's crew this week is working on Madison avenue, Namook road, Fehling road, Pontoon road and St. Clair avenue.

The crosswalk stripes and large painted warnings to motorists advising them to drive "slow" are being painted in the vicinity of Coolidge junior high school, the senior high school, St. Margaret Mary Catholic school, St. Elizabeth Catholic school, McKinley, Emerson, Nameoki, Niedringhaus and Wilson schools.

The painted signs with large, three-foot letters are "slow, slow, school."

Old Massey Dairy Property Being Sold To Mobil Oil

An option on the old Massey Dairy Co. property on the southwest corner of Madison avenue and 20th street has been taken up by the Mobil Oil Co. which plans to establish an expansive service operation on that corner and adjoining property, it was learned today.

The option was executed with the Morris Realty Co. by representatives of the St. Louis office of Mobil Oil. No sale price was disclosed. An official at the St. Louis headquarters confirmed reports that the property is in the process of being transferred, but said he could not discuss details of the sale or plans for future construction work at this time.

It was reported that the company also owns adjoining property on the corner of 20th street and Grand avenue with 100 feet frontage on 20th street. The Massey Co. property has a 200-120 feet on 20th street. The 100 foot frontage on Madison avenue at 20th and Grand is now occupied by Corky's Mobil station.

The combined properties provide Mobil Oil with 200 feet on Madison avenue, 240 feet on 20th street and 100 feet on Grand avenue.

It is understood the company plans to tear down the old dairy building and build one of the largest service stations in the area.

Hits Utility Pole

An auto driven by Earl R. Cates, 35, of 2812 Madison avenue, was damaged about 4 a.m. Wednesday when he ran into a utility pole at 1726 Madison avenue. Cates told Granite City police that a passing car forced him off the street. He escaped apparent injury.

Paul Lusk, who was Madison high school's top scorer and leading ground-gainer last season as a sophomore fullback, has been switched to left halfback by coach Glen Pickering.

The 6-foot-3, 200-pounder scored six touchdowns and gained 418 yards—almost half the team's rushing total—in 108 carries last year. Meanwhile, letterman end Alton Rendell is being tried at fullback.

"This will give our offense more versatility," Pickering said. "In our offense, the left halfback has more opportunity to run. And if we need short yardage sometime, we might use Lusk back at fullback."

"Of course, Rendell's a big boy and has been doing pretty well, so maybe we won't have to do that." The only reservation Pickering has on Rendell at present is his blocking.

Other Top Backs

Currently running at wingback in Madison's Wing-T formation is letterman Frank Broyles, who averaged four yards for 26 carries last year.

At the quarterback slot, junior Tom Williams is getting stiff competition from sophomores Steve Shipcoff and Steve Geroff.

Said Pickering: "I thought at first that Williams would be our starter, because he played all of last year as a sophomore and looked pretty good. But now I don't know. We'll probably start him to begin with because of his experience, and go from there."

Another top prospect for a halfback spot is speedster Dale Turner, a junior basketball player who didn't play football last season.

Line Candidates

In addition to the backs, Pickering clicked off the names of several linemen who at present appear to have the edge.

Pickering still insists, however, that all starting positions are still wide open, with time

More Flexibility, Coach Says

Warriors Will Employ I-Formation

Concentration on mastering a new offense, the Shooting-I, is occupying the Granite City high school football squad this week as preparations continue for the Sept. 18 opener here with River View Gardens, Mo.

Coach Jim Morrison said he has replaced last season's multi-offense with the Shooting-I to give the Fighting Warriors' attack more continuity. "Last year we had sort of a grab-bag affair," he said.

"We feel the Shooting-I gives us more flexibility than any other offense," Morrison said. "It forces mistakes on the defense. It's adapted to give us a strong inside running game and we can put tremendous pressure on the defensive secondary by using it as a passing offense."

The offense will utilize several shifts from the basic I-formation with a split end on the left side and a tight end on the right.

And with lighter, speedier halfbacks this season, Morrison expects to use more passing than the Warriors did a year ago.

Gibson Returns

The team's serious lack of tackle depth was helped Monday when letterman Tim Gibson, 6-foot-4 185-pound senior, reported for duty. When practice started, Gibson did not report because of a conflict with his job.

Now his working hours have been changed to allow him to participate in football. Gibson, the 11th returning letterman, is counted on for heavy duty.

Also reporting Monday was Ray Snelson, a 170-pound senior guard-linebacker, who had to quit last year due to a heart murmur. Now his doctor has cleared him for football.

Morrison said the experiment with co-captain Jerry Lybarger at fullback has ended and the muscular 175-pounder has returned to the right guard slot.

Saints Play Saturday

St. Mary's Saints of Madison met the Kirkwood Hornets at 1 p.m. Saturday at Forest Park, St. Louis, for the Class B Midway championship of the Khoury Baseball League. Through an error in the Khoury scores, it was reported Monday the local team had lost 4-3. Actually, the Saints won 3-2 in eight innings over the Seco Jets.

Sacred Heart and Mercer Home clash at 2:30 p.m. Monday at Wilson Park as the regular season schedule of the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball League comes to a close.

Both Granite City clubs also play Sunday games, the Hearts visiting Collinsville at Fletcher Field and the Mercers entertaining Pocahontas in a battle for second place in the league's Blue Division.

Dick Portelli's Sacred Heart club is out of the running for the Red Division title but would like the distinction of beating the champion Boosters two-out-of-three times.

The Hearts downed Collinsville 11-4 May 31 but lost the second meeting 4-0 on June 28. Pocahontas is the only Inter-City team to dump Collinsville twice this season.

The Mercers, managed by Olive Miller, trail the Pocahontas Braves by a half-game in their battle for the Blue runner-up spot. Both teams, in fact, have an outside shot at catching front-running St. Clair Heating of East St. Louis.

But the Hearts have already clinched a tie for the title and would have to lose both games to be eliminated for good.

The champions take a break Sept. 13 when the second and third-place teams battle to determine who plays them on Sept. 20. The victors that day when begin a best two-three championship series scheduled for Sept. 27 and Oct. 4, and Oct. 11 if necessary.

Meeting Saturday
On Flag Football
 A meeting for all managers and coaches in the Granite City park district's flag football program will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the Wilson Park office. League rules will be discussed.

There are currently 13 teams entered in the three-division league, which opens play Sept. 12. A total of 228 boys are now signed up but registration will continue next week in hopes of adding several more teams for grades 3-4, 5-6 and 7 teams.

Additional coaches are also needed and are invited to the meeting according to the park office.

Warriors Open Cross Country Season Tuesday Afternoon Against Belleville

Getting an early start on the season, Granite City high school's cross country team opens at 4 p.m. Tuesday against Belleville at Wilson Park.

Captain Dick Harmon has three lettermen returning but only two — Steve Stamps and John Bull — will be available for the first meet. The third, Mike Lambert, is on vacation and will not return in time for the meet.

Candidates for the squad number 30 with the following catching Harmon's eye: Mike Forcade, Tom Shands, Larry Crews, Keith Wilson, John Kozak, Bob Yates and Jerry Walters.

The real test, however, won't be until tomorrow night when the first time trials are held over the 1.8-mile course.

Athletic director Dick Yates announced a 12-date schedule for Warriors, with two dates, Oct. 13 and 27, still to be filled, which was held in New York.

Committee to Urge Board action on Rail Assessments

Recommendation that the Madison county board of supervisors initiate immediately a program to revise the present state system of assessing railroad property will be presented to the board next Tuesday in a mandated meeting beginning at 9:30 a.m. in the courthouse at Edwardsville.

Harry Briggs, Nameoki township supervisor and chairman of the legislative committee, said the recommendation will be submitted to the board in Tuesday's meeting but that it has not yet been definitely determined what form of action will be urged, or whether that part of the matter will be left to the board. He pointed out that the county could seek to correct the assessing problem either by backing new legislation or that it could, as an alternative, press an investigative program.

The committee recommendation will be supported by a report prepared by Burton C. Bernard, assistant state's attorney, showing that ten of Madison county's operating railroads already have filed protests against $337,582, or 48% of their 1963 tax bill of $703,521, even though the railroad tax bill for 1963 was 32% lower than it was the previous year.

County board action to do something about the system or methods of assessment of railroad property by the state was urged by Bernard when he appeared before the board last month and told the supervisors that equalization of assessments a year earlier was believed to have solved the matter of railroad valuation protests, but that railroads again are objecting to rail assessments in an amount as great as before.

Assessment Was Reduced
Bernard, who handled the county's case in the recent railroad tax objection hearings, said the report prepared for the legislative committee of the county board will show that the assessed valuation for the county's 13 operating railroads was reduced from $33,886,921 for the 1962 tax year to $21,624,459 for the 1963 tax year, a reduction of 35%.

As a result the railroad tax bill for the 1963 year was $783,521, a cut of 32% below the 1962 bill of $1,168,604, yet 10 of the 13 railroads now have on file in the treasurer's office a series of protests tying up $337,582 of their total 1963 tax bill. These protests involve both assessments and rates, but $288,606 of the protests are based on assessments alone.

Briggs told the Press-Record that "the situation is bad and something has to be done. Our committee will make a recommendation to the board but we do not know just now what form of action will be recommended. It could either be a legislative program or it could be an investigative action. We also intend to work through the Illinois association of county boards because this matter affects every county in the state."

Railroad property is assessed each year by the Illinois department of revenue and assessments are certified to the county clerk of each county. The county clerk has no alternative but to extend taxes against the assessments certified by the state body.

Pace of UF Campaign to be Set Sept. 11th

Campaign leaders for the 1965 Tri-Cities Area United Fund drive are marking Sept. 11th on their calendars as a red-letter day for the new fund-raising program with its $335,000 goal.

Sept. 11th has been designated as "Construction Workers' Day," and a team of volunteer solicitors headed by Eugene P. Ellberg will visit all major construction sites and contractors in the Quad-Cities to seek contributions.

Ellberg, who is business agent for the Carpenters Union, heads the Contractors' Employees Division of this year's U.F. fund campaign and is being aided by Edward Hagnauer, director of APL-CIO Community Services.

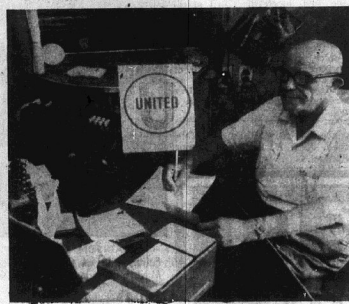

Together they plan to send letters this week to the 2500 construction workers in the Quad-Cities urging they turn in pledges on Sept. 11 for a payroll deduction on the next pay day. Pledge cards are being mailed with the letters.

The Sept. 11 solicitation will be the first major undertaking for the 1965 United Fund campaign and will be in advance of the Oct. 13 kick-off date for the community-wide drive headed by Joseph Glikk and John R. Hundley.

Larger Pledges Expected
Ellberg, who has met with other craft union business agents and contractors, said he is confident the "Construction Workers' Day" pledges will far outstrip the $815 contribution of last year.

Explaining the procedure, Ellberg said his campaign workers will follow-up the letter with direct solicitations on Sept. 11. The letters explain the purposes of the United Fund and its 17 member agencies which provide health, welfare, child guidance and recreation programs for Quad-Cities.

The construction workers who are employed here but live elsewhere may designate their contributions to go to their home communities.

UF CAMPAIGN SPEARHEADERS, Eugene Ellberg, Carpenters' Union business agent and chairman of the Tri-Cities United Fund Contractors' Employees Division who will conduct the initial solicitation for the 1965 fund drive on Friday, Sept. 11, which has been designated as "Construction Workers' Day." The community-wide drive will start next month.

Glikk and Hundley explained that reciprocal programs are carried out by the Tri-Cities United Fund and the United Fund and Community Chest organizations in nearby communities. "We truly believe this first solicitation will be the pacemaker for the campaign in October," the drive leaders said.

2-Year Pedestrian Safety Citation Goes to Madison

A two-year pedestrian safety citation for 1963-64 was received Tuesday night by the Madison city council from the American Automobile Association.

The plaque presentation to the city was made by Mayor Maeras, who commented that while it was an outstanding tribute to Madison residents, the police department, street department and the death last month of a little girl struck by an auto on the street put an end to the city's remarkable pedestrian safety record.

The plaque states that the city of Madison is being given special recognition for its pedestrian safety program as conducted under an AAA appraisal.

Brighter Street Lights
An experiment that might result in brighter street lights throughout the city was authorized by the council.

Two street lights along Farish street at Madison high school are to be stepped up from the present 4000 lumens to 10,000 in cooperation with the school district which is installing brighter vandal lights at the high school. Mayor Maeras said the cost of the two 4000-lumen lights is $30 a year, and that the brighter incandescent lights can be obtained for an additional $24. He said incandescent lights were being recommended because the brighter mercury vapor street lights would flood nearby homes with light and possibly result in complaints.

A progress report on improvement of McCambridge avenue north of the Edwardsville road junction is expected in two weeks.

A state highway department engineer is to inspect the heavily-traveled roadway with the city's engineer this week and will submit a report to the city. The council plans to restrict travel to one-way southbound in order to eliminate a traffic hazard at the Edwardsville road-McCambridge avenue junction. Bids are to be available for consideration in two weeks for alley catch basin installations and sidewalks along Washington avenue.

Three appointments to the civil defense auxiliary police unit were approved on the recommendations by Harry Johnson, CD director, and Police Chief Emmett Pavia.

The city's industrial development promotion firm's recommendation for the 65-acre tract near the high school to be named Maeras Industrial Park, Maeras declined, saying he favored the name Madison Industrial Park.

City bills and the half-month payroll amounted to $13,768; while the bills and payroll for the Chain of Rocks bridge totaled $8419.

Those who participated were: squad leader, Lt. Ron Jarrett; assistant squad leader, Sgt. Bill Voss; and team members, Pvt. Larry Unfried Jr., Pvt. M. S. Fisk and Sgt. Fred Willis.

The Granite City civil defense Rescue Service held a training exercise Wednesday evening at the downtown rescue training hall. The exercise consisted of simulation of a man overcome by fumes in a manhole.

A member of the squad was sent into the manhole and, in the process of rescue, also was "overcome" by the fumes. A second man was sent down to rescue the two men.

Those who participated were: squad leader, Lt. Ron Jarrett; assistant squad leader, Sgt. Bill Voss; and team members, Pvt. Larry Unfried Jr., Pvt. M. S. Fisk and Sgt. Fred Willis.

The new Madison county grand jury — third to be impaneled this year under the revised court system — went into session at Edwardsville Tuesday, but recessed for one week after making routine inspection of county institutions.

Election May Be Sought to Expand Park Territory

Members of the Wilshire Manor Civic and Improvement Association voted 8-3 Monday night to circulate petitions requesting an election to annex to the Granite City park district territory. The meeting was held at Peace United Lutheran Church on Stratford lane.

Annexation procedures were explained by Park Atty. Randall Robertson at the request of the association. Favorable votes would be needed in both the area to be added and in the present park district territory. Election costs would be borne by the county government.

Robertson explained that the park district is a separate governmental agency which already includes rural and urban areas.

Year-Around Recreation

Taxes would be paid through the Nameoki township collector and were estimated at $6 a year, or $200 for the entire park district. The program fees which exceed $20 and may be increased. Recreation is conducted in all seasons of the year.

While new park district residents get more in services than they pay in taxes, the district has a policy of accepting neighborhoods desiring to join, the attorney explained. Plans call for full-time summer recreation directors at the new school and south of the Peace Church, if the adjacent property is part of the park district.

The new 20-acre park is located on an extension of Maryville road, which is being paved. A playground is in operation there, and development of additional sections is scheduled, Robertson said.

City Park Economy

He added that the park system has a long record of stable and efficient operation, avoiding tax increases despite steady expansion of the recreation program — now one of the largest of its type in existence.

In other business, petitions were signed seeking door-to-door mail delivery in Wilshire. President Michael Ropac said such mail service has been obtained in the New Haven subdivision where Wilshire association officials will aid in forming a New Haven civic and improvement group.

A parliamentarian was added to the present eight-member board, and other by-law changes and nomination and election of officers will be considered at an October meeting of Wilshire association members. Bowling instruction for women and children was discussed.

'Y' Organizes Senior Group for Madison

A new retired persons group is being organized by the YMCA for Madison. The group will meet at the Madison Recreation Center, Seventh street and Lee avenue. It will be a part of the YMCA Senior Citizens but will have its own officers and program. The name "Madison Senior Y" has been selected.

Civic leaders and various organizations, such as the Madison Rotary Club, have expressed interest in the program and have promised their help. These include Mayor Stephen Meeros, H. D. Karandjoff, president of the YMCA board, Mrs. Opal Fogle, 1639 Third street, Madison, who has been enrolling members, Mrs. Corinne Rupp, president of the Granite City Senior Citizens, and Mrs. Bonnie Fuller of the "Y" staff.

Membership will be from an extension of the Granite City Senior Citizen program, with $150 paid annually for full coverage insurance on all activities.

weather affects both quantity and quality of hay. This year most dairymen started feeding alfalfa hay to their cows in mid-summer rather than in the fall as usual, because of the poor pastures.

An example is reported by Clarence Bierg, Saline township, who started feeding hay July 1 to his 24-cow herd. Normally he starts feeding hay in October. He says he lost 100 pasture days due to the drought and the poor pastures earlier in the year because of the dry weather of late 1963. He is feeding 8 bales of hay per day more than he normally would. For the hundred days from July through September he will feed 800 bales, or 20 tons. At $35 per ton this amounts to $700. Based on the normal milk production of his cows, Clarence estimates the additional cost of producing milk on his farm until next April will be 38 cents more per hundred pounds, due to his increased cost of providing roughage in the dairy ration.

On most dairy farms, production per cow is declining because of lower quality of grain, hay or silage, caused by the drought. Another increased expense is hauling water from city water works to farms. Many wells have gone dry and water levels in ponds used for livestock water have been low. Eugene Ramsey of Alhambra, who trucks milk from farms in Madison and four other nearby counties, states that of 37 farms where he loads milk, 32 have been hauling water.

Hessian fly populations in wheat are about the same as last year, on the basis of the state average, according to a recent report by the Illinois State Natural History Survey. In 1963 the state average was puparia (flaxseed) stage per 100 tillers, while this year it is 4. Both years are below the averages for the period from 1959 through 1962, when the state average ranged between 9 and 14 puparia per 100 tillers. This year the southwestern section, south of Madison county, has the highest population, with an average of 10 puparia per 100 tillers. Populations are great enough in this section to be a threat to early-seeded susceptible varieties this fall. The greatest decreases occurred in the western and west-southwestern sections including Madison county.

Farmers can reduce Hessian fly populations and lessen damage by following these practices: 1. Destroy all volunteer wheat by mid-September. This wheat provides a place for a full buildup of Hessian flies. It can benefit the fly as much as early seeding. 2. Seed on or after the recommended seeding date when using susceptible varieties. These dates depend on the latitude. Fly emergence occurs first in the northern counties and progresses southward from mid-September to mid-October. The recommended seeding date for Madison county is Oct. 1 to 9. 3. When seeding early, use resistant varieties, such as Knox 62, Monon, Ottawa, Ponca, or Reid. Select the one best suited to your area. Consult the University of Illinois Agronomy Department list of recommended varieties. Use either certified or pure (not contaminated with other varieties) seed. Any of these varieties may be seeded early without damage by Hessian fly or buildup of populations. 4. Use a systemic insecticide, such as phorate (Thimet) or D-Syston, when seeding susceptible varieties early. Place it in the drill row with a grass-seeder attachment at fall seeding. Use 10 pounds of 10% granules per acre. Follow label precautions when handling and apply this material, as it is toxic to warm-blooded animals, including man. Even when fly populations are low, it is still advisable to follow control recommendations to prevent buildup of and damage by the fall generation, which can no longer keep pace with these superior newcomers. In U. of I. trials, Dupuits and Alfa consistently outyielded Ranger by more than a ton per acre per year. Vernal outyields Ranger by more than half a ton per acre, and is resistant to leaf diseases. If you plant a large acreage, you can't afford to wait for early and late-maturing types. Dupuits will give you top yields for early harvest, while the later maturing Vernal and Alfa can help you spread your harvest season.

You may pay $1 to $2 more per acre to seed one of these new varieties. But you'll buy an extra-half to one ton of new hay per acre per year with these improved varieties. The value of good quality hay, especially alfalfa, for dairy cows and other livestock is emphasized in drought years, when dry

Beer Keg Explodes, Injures Madison Man

A Madison man who was injured when a beer keg exploded and an infant who swallowed a quantity of moth balls were among Quad-Cityans given emergency treatment this week at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Admitted to the hospital after receiving a three-inch laceration to his left leg was Edward Kmiec, 46, of 1514 Seventh street, Madison. He was struck by the plug of an empty beer keg which was blown off when the keg exploded. The accident occurred during a picnic on the grounds of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church, Madison.

Henry Lumpkins, 14-month-old son of Henry Lumpkins, 805 Franklin street, Madison, was transferred to Children's Hospital, St. Louis, after treatment here for consumption of an undetermined number of moth balls. Sam Renee Crim, 7, granddaughter of Louis Byrne, 920 Jefferson street, Madison, was admitted to the hospital for treatment of a large cut to her left ankle, suffered in a bicycle wheel.

Children treated for dog bites to the face were Samuel Apponey Jr., five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Apponey, 1501 Edwardsville road; and Keith Lupardus, 10, son of Homer Lupardus, Glen Carbon. Finger injuries were suffered by Mrs. Inez Loftus, 62, of 4108 Kirkpatrick homes whose right index finger was caught in washer; and Ivan Baseden, 68, of 611 Washington avenue, Venice, whose left little finger was caught in a car door.

Lesson on Man at Christian Science Church

States and stages of human progress will be explored in the Bible lesson on "Man" at all Christian Science churches Sunday, including First Church of Christ, Scientist, 2560 Delmar avenue.

Bible selections will be from Romans (ch. 12).

JUST PLAIN WORN OUT is the only way to describe the marble steps (top photo) on the main entrance to the 38-year-old YMCA — a well-used agency of the United Fund. The marble steps on the Edison avenue side of the building have been removed and the new concrete steps are in the process of being installed. The depth of the worn area (lower photo) of the two steps is nearly a half-inch. While no count has ever been made on the number of times the high-grade marble has been stepped on, a marble firm official was asked the question by the Press-Record. He did a quick slide rule computation and based on the type of marble said the only available answer would be—"Millions, just millions of footsteps."

Madison Council Ok's $150 For Convention Expenses

Madison city officials voted themselves an expense allowance not to exceed $150 each for the annual Illinois Municipal League convention to be held in Chicago this month — Sept. 28-29. The action was taken at Tuesday night's council session.

Sept. 29 Meeting Postponed

Because the convention sessions will continue through Tuesday afternoon on Sept. 29, the regular council session for that night was postponed to Sept. 30. It was explained that if the aldermen and officials stay for the afternoon banquet that day, they could not get back in time if they were traveling by train.

Mayor Estimated Costs

Mayor Maerue said that individual at the convention to be about $42 for a room, $45 or $50 for meals, $19 for train transportation and $22 for registration fees and the remainder would be needed for taxi fare and tips.

Permission also was granted

for two police department sergeants to attend the Sept. 21-22 convention of the Illinois Police Association to be held in Peoria. Their allowances are to be $100 each.

The officers named by Chief

Ernest Padia were Sgt. Edward Zabotka and Rudolph Uherick.

MODEL OF IRON ORE MINE and pellet plant that are to be developed near Pilot Knob, Mo., by Granite City Steel Co. and the Hanna Mining Co. of Cleveland at a cost of $23,000,000. The site is about 80 miles southwest of Granite City. The local steel mill will use the plant's output of high-grade iron ore pellets.

The tell building of the right will be the mine headframe at the top of a 1600-foot shaft. The low building to the right of the headframe will house compressors and other ventilating equipment.

Hoisted to the surface at the headframe, the iron ore will be moved by belt conveyor to an open storage pile and from there via another conveyor to a crushing plant. The crushed ore will be carried to storage silos above the concentrating plant (building in center foreground) for grinding and magnetic separation of ore from rock impurities. The concentrate will be processed and heated in pelletizing furnaces in the larger building to the left.

High-grade pellets of iron ore, 3/8ths to 1/2-inch in diameter and averaging 65% iron, will be moved by still another belt conveyor to the pellet loadout station in the left foreground. The low building indicated the right will house offices, shops and other service facilities.

meet the growing steel needs of that entire area with the fastest service and a dependable supply of high quality flat rolled steel products.

The Pilot Knob development will provide the iron ore pellets we need to bring about a substantial increase in our production of blast furnace pig iron. Thus, it will support the continued expansion of our steel-making, rolling and finishing operations to meet the expanding needs of our market."

Officers of the two companies went to Jefferson City yesterday to review the Pilot Knob project with representatives of the Missouri Division of Commerce and Industrial Development and Gov. John M. Dalton. Present, in addition to Matting and Veeder, were Gilbert W. Humphreys, chairman of the Hanna Mining Co., and Robert F. Anderson, vice-president of Granite City Steel.

Hanna Mining operates plants in a combined pellet capacity of about 8,000,000 tons a year, principally its 1,500,000-ton Cleveland plant in Upper Michigan and the 5,500,000-ton Carol pellet plant at Iron Ore Co. of Canada project in Labrador.

It is also considering building a pellet plant on the Mesabi iron range in Minnesota.

Deposits 400 Feet Down
The large underground iron ore deposit at Pilot Knob was discovered several years ago by Hanna Mining's exploration teams. Test drilling indicated the ore is first encountered at a depth of about 400 feet beneath the surface and extends downward to an eventual depth of about 1500 feet. There is enough ore to allow for many years of production.

The Pilot Knob mine will have a single main shaft, 20 feet in diameter and lined with concrete. It will be sunk to the 1600-foot level and ore will be raised to the surface by two, electrically-driven "skip hoists." The shaft will also have an elevator for personnel and equipment. A ventilating shaft will be sunk to a depth of 1000 feet. Underground mining levels will extend horizontally from the main shaft.

The Pilot Knob plant will make concentrates for the pelletizing furnace by crushing and grinding the ore into "fine" or "1000th-inch in size and separating the ore from rock impurities by magnetic separators. The pellets will be 3/8ths to 1/2-inch in diameter and will average 65% iron.

The site of the new mine is in Iron county about six miles south of the Iron Mountain mine owned by Hanna at Iron Mountain, Mo., which has supplied some ore to Granite City Steel for many years and has recently been producing about 240,000 tons a year.

Hanna officials said that operations at the Iron Mountain mine will be phased out in about two years as the new Pilot Knob plant begins operating and that employment opportunities at the new plant will be available to the 175 people presently employed at the Iron Mountain mine.

Other Ore Sources
Granite City Steel has been obtaining about 25% of its iron ore requirements from its own mine in the Gogebic range in northern Michigan and the remainder from outside suppliers. Veeder said the company's future growth may require the eventual development of still other sources of ore.

With this in mind, he added, Granite City Steel is continuing its joint venture exploration of various ore bodies with the American Zinc, Lead and Smelting Co. The two companies have already established the existence of a large underground ore body at Bourbon, Mo., 70 miles from St. Louis and in the same gen-

Select Name for Daughter

Dynette Elizabeth is the name selected by Mr. and Mrs. James E. Shrader, 2022 Rhodes street, Madison, for their infant daughter born Aug. 25 at St. Luke's Hospital in St. Louis. The baby weighed eight pounds, 10 ounces. She has two brothers, James Jr. and Timothy Shrader.

Real part of southeast Missouri as Iron Mountain.

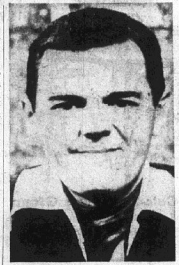

The Pilot Knob mine will be developed at the base of the 200-foot-high hill of Pilot Knob. The site lies between the towns of Ironton and Pilot Knob in the broad, winding Arcadia Valley which is outlined by some of the highest peaks in the Ozarks.

Historical Site

Pilot Knob was an important source of iron ore in the mid-nineteenth century. A comparatively shallow surface layer of ore on the side of the hill was worked actively before and during the Civil War. The U.S. Forest Service maintains a marker about a quarter of a mile from the site of the new mine to show the location of the old workings. An earthen road, built by Union forces during the war to protect mining activities in the area. The 100th anniversary of the Battle of Pilot Knob will be commemorated at Fort Davidson later this month.

The battle took place September 27, 1864, when a Confederate force of about 12,000, marching north toward St. Louis, made a bloody frontal assault on Fort Davidson. The Confederates lost about 1200 men and the drive on St. Louis was halted.

No man can find contentment in his idea of plenty is unreasonable.

PUPPETEER and magician Jack Miller, star of television's "The World of Mr. Zoom," will appear from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday at the Granite City park district's Labor Day festival at Wilson Park.

Since 1961, Miller has entertained children with such puppets as Princess Moonbeam, Shazam, Norton Downey, Van Go and Cecil B. Dinosaur.

Venice Town Spending Slashes Cash Balance

Expenditures in the first five months of the 1964-65 fiscal year totaled $37,821, reports indicated at a semi-annual Venice township board meeting Tuesday night. Income totaled only $11,231, and the cash balance dropped from $30,546 to $3956. New taxes are expected soon.

The board, which also meets monthly, asked Supervisor Arthur W. "Cooper" Moore to file a $19,650 road and bridge fund tax levy with the county board of supervisors prior to its semi-annual session next Tuesday. The levy, taken to Edwardsville yesterday morning, was adopted in April; it is $5350 below that of the previous year.

March 31-Aug. 31 disbursements and new balances announced Tuesday night were $11,876 and $1589 in the general assistance fund, $19,654 and $1771 in the town fund, $3792 and $267 in the road fund, $227 and $15 in the social security fund and $2881 and $321 in the municipal retirement fund.

General assistance fund obligations totaled $26,959. With only $11,876 expended, outstanding and unpaid bills rose from $22,590 to a current figure of $37,674.

Army Specialist Kidwell Training in Germany

Army Specialist Four Robert N. Kidwell, whose wife, Gladys, lives at 844 Niedringhaus avenue, and other members of the 3rd Armored Division are participating in a three-week field training exercise at Wildflecken, Germany. During the exercise Specialist Kidwell is undergoing extensive weapons firing and marksmanship training. Kidwell, son of Mrs. Louise J. Kidwell, Union, Mo., is a mechanic in Company E of the division's 23rd Engineer Battalion near Hanau, Germany.

ON THE JOB In the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce is the new manager of the local office, Fred C. Goewert, 37. He began his duties here this week, replacing Harlan Dobry, who left May 18 to become manager of the Kalamazoo, Ind., C. of C. office. Goewert formerly was manager of the East St. Louis C. of C.

Close Control on Traffic Set for Holiday Weekend

An all-out battle to reduce the number of traffic accidents when the usual multitude of motorists taken to the highways this weekend for the three-day Labor Day holiday is being mapped by state and local police and safety council officials. Capt. Emil Toffant, commander of state highway patrolmen working out of the French Village district headquarters, said the previously planned "Red Alert" program will continue throughout the three-day period with the entire personnel of the district on duty and one of the highway police planes in the air making speed checks and calling in locations of congested highways. Capt. Toffant said that all "days off" of patrolmen have been canceled. In addition, uniformed investigators of the Secretary of State's office will be assigned to patrol work. The heaviest concentration of manpower will be assigned to the first 12 hours and the last 12 hours of the holiday period — when accidents always are the most numerous.

What to Holiday Drivers

Local police of the Quad-Cities area also are prepared to strengthen traffic control work for the holiday period. Drivers are being urged to avoid the peak hours if at all possible and to determine drive time so a last-minute speedup is not necessary. Similar plans were made by the Quad-City Safety Council which also recommended a precautionary check of brakes, headlights and tires before taking off on a long trip. The council warned against "highway hypnosis" caused by exhaustive driving and said all drivers should start trips well rested. Driving long distances at night should be avoided whenever possible.

Last year 750 persons were killed in traffic accidents throughout the nation and many of them lost their lives — and many more were seriously injured — because drivers forgot that driving on unimproved secondary roads is far different than driving on high-speed turnpikes and expressways, according to a traffic warning issued by Calcium Chloride Institute.

The warning pointed out there are 86,283 miles of unimproved, dusty roads, and driving in a dust cloud can be as dangerous as driving through a snowstorm.

Pleadings by 3 Youths Taken under Advisement

Taken under advisement by Magistrate Gasparovic were pleadings entered this week by three youths charged with aggravated battery on complainants filed by Joseph Jacobs sr. The youths were arrested Sunday afternoon in the 1900 block of Spruce street and charged with creating a disturbance for an ice cream vendor. The battery charges were filed Monday afternoon. James Costello, 18, of 2118 Missouri avenue, and Lloyd Brooks, 17, of 2031 Bryan avenue, pleaded guilty to both charges; while Leroy Tidwell, 17, of 1552 Spruce street pleaded not guilty to aggravated battery and guilty to creating a disturbance. All were released on bonds pending disposition of the cases Sept. 19 by Magistrate Gasparovic.

ELMER J. HOFFMAN, Republican candidate for secretary of state of Illinois, who will be at the GOP party booth at the Granite City park district Labor Day festival between 3 and 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 5. The announcement was made today by Vernice Workman, president of the Madison County Federation of Republican Women.

DOES THIS SYMBOL MEAN ANYTHING TO YOU?

Most chickens are government inspected, but most chickens are NOT Grade "A." There are Also Grade B and C Chickens, and missing part chickens, such as those minus a leg, wing, etc.
Tri-City Grocery Co. in its continuing policy of offering its customers the best, offers only Grade "A" chickens for sale.
We think you might be somewhat surprised at how few of the chickens sold are Grade "A." When buying them always look for the identifying Grade "A" symbol, if you want the best.

Secretary of State William H. Chamberlain today announced the drivers license division of his office has rescinded the revocation of the license of a Granite Cityan.

The state of Illinois has requested the National Park Service to designate Cahokia Mounds State Park as a Registered National Historic Landmark. Gov. Otto Kerner announced this week.

The governor said he made the request in a letter to George B. Hartog Jr., director of the National Park Service.

If the application is approved by the National Park Service, the state will receive a certificate and bronze marker stating the park possesses exceptional value in commemorating and illustrating the history of the United States.

In applying for Registered National Landmark status for Cahokia Mounds State Park, the state agreed to preserve so far as practicable the historical integrity of the park; to continue to use the property only for purposes consistent with its historical character; and to permit an annual visit to the park by a representative of the National Park Service.

Historical Description.
In a study by the National Survey of Historic Sites and

State Seeking National Status for Cahokia Mound Park

evaluation by the Advisory Board on National Parks, Historic Sites, Buildings and Monuments, Cahokia Mounds State Park is described as follows:

"One of the major and the largest prehistoric sites in the United States, it is dominated by the great Monks Mound, nearly 100 feet high. The central portion of the site is preserved by a State Park, but, unfortunately, a great many of the outlying mounds have been destroyed in recent building and highway work. Nonetheless, recent salvage excavations during the past few years have brought to light a wealth of information on architecture and village planning and have shown the scientific importance of the site.

"At one time Cahokia had nearly 100 mounds and covered on about three square miles. The village area is exceedingly rich in prehistoric remains of the Mississippian period. Doubtless, this site was the fountainhead of site ranks as one of the outstanding monuments of American Indian culture and covers a span of approximately 600-1400 A.D."

Slight improvement in the condition of David Askins, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Askins, 708 26th street, and Richard Hale, 16, St. Louis, who were critically injured Sunday night as an auto overturned on a dirt road at Mitchell.

The extensive hospitalization expected to be necessary for both, it was learned today. They are patients at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis.

Stale News Becomes New When Paper is 100 Years Old

By JOHN W. ALLEN

Southern Illinois University

A day old paper is stale; the staleness increases daily. There is a point, however, where the process is reversed.

These papers that have been around for a hundred years or ten has acquired an interest, perhaps beyond what it originally had. This is true of an 1863 file of The Valley Farmer, an agricultural paper published in St. Louis and having a large circulation in Illinois.

Such old papers often tell of forgotten beliefs and of practices once common but now discarded. The Valley Farmer contained much material of this kind.

Interest in Health

Judging by the space given for easy farming in 1863 there was an abiding interest in health.

Klikas of Edwardsville, president; Mrs. Velora Northway of Wood River, parliamentarian. Second row—Miss Audrey Ulrich of Wood River, treasurer; Mrs. Fannie Ulrich of Alton, historian; and Mrs. Ruby Menendez of Fairmont City, Fifth Division president, who was installing officer.

lines of pounds were grown here. Sorghum prospects were good but the crude methods of making molasses were criticized. At the same time, the paper told of a sorghum convention being held in Ohio. Another item told how old, strong sorghum could be made highly palatable by adding charcoal and boiling.

Pages were devoted to the growing of tobacco, then a principal cash crop in Egypt. At that time Southern Illinois grew thousands of acres of tobacco. It is doubtful if the combined acreage grown in the same region last year, purely for "table use," would be equal a half-acre. A detailed account of two acres grown then showed a profit of about $1700 dollars. The two acres grown by the writer in 1963 netted only $127.

Another was the use of linen clothes wrung from ice water or cloths from hot water.

Old grave markers in southern Illinois cemeteries add to the diphtheria story by recording many deaths of youngsters in 1903 within only a few days. Diphtheria and "summer complaint" made childhood a hazard.

Neuralgia and rheumatism received attention. It was explained that the bloom of the chicken was a good barometer and that weather could be foretold by observing the extent to which the bloom opened. The effect of barometrical pressure on chickens and livestock was mentioned and the aches and pains of rheumatic humans supposedly warned that bad weather lay ahead.

Good Old Sulphur and Molasses

It was thought that blood-letting or "bleeding" reduced the volume of blood and thus rested the heart. A sure remedy for typhoid was to wash it in ammonia water and follow with a few doses of the old reliable sulphur and molasses.

Spavin, poll evil, lamppass, hoof bound, hog cholera and gapes in chickens were commented upon and some remedies suggested. Why a horse could not breathe through his nostrils was explained. A method of treatment for a horse that was a "stump sucker" was offered with the opinion of the editor, a valid one, that it would not work. He must have been a horse trader. A cow died after eating a few bites of stunted sorghum but it was not known that prussic acid was the killer.

Food and drink came in for repeated comments. There easily were 20 ways to make vinegar and as many ways to keep cider for weeks. Coffee substitutes were offered, and directions for drying of apples.

There was advice concerning the winter supply of firewood, that brought to mind memories of Uncle Bill Stevens' well-filled wood sheds.

Season in Illinois

A report for "Lower Egypt," Southern Illinois, told that the cotton crop was not so good, there not being enough rain to properly sprout the seed. Cotton in Southern Illinois may seem strange, but it must be remembered that Illinois was a principal cotton producing area during the Civil War when mil-

Early Treatment For Child Handicaps Urged

Importance of early recognition of children's problems was stressed by Dr. Jack Rowe, Alton, Tuesday night in an address to the Organization to Aid the Handicapped. The regional parents' group met in Collinsville. Early care often can reduce the extent of handicaps, but much depends on the alertness of parents in determining whether a youngster is reaching various stages of development at the usual time, parents said. The first year or two, the speaker said.

The Madison Junior Service club accepted the duties of recording secretary Tuesday night. Earlier, the Granite City Junior Service club was named corresponding secretary for the OATH group, whose president is Milton Morris of Venice.

Possibility of cooperating with Southwestern Illinois University in setting up classes for parents was discussed. Instruction would be given in aiding children with various handicaps.

Next meeting will be held Oct. 6 in Edwardsville.

A clumsy burglar who dropped the screen he was removing from a bedroom window fled without getting into the room, awakening the homeowner, who called the police. The incident was one of a series of attempted break-ins and thefts reported this week to Granite City police.

Dr. Caris told police that his wife was sleeping in the bedroom and that he was preparing to go to bed when someone pried at the screen from an open window in the bedroom. The screen fell into the room, awakening Mrs. Caris, who screamed. The would-be burglar fled. Police said they were unsuccessful in locating fingerprints or footprints.

Bow Hunters Urged

To Apply at Once For State Permits

Bow hunters who have not applied for their deer bow hunting permits should do so at once if they intend to hunt when the bow hunting season opens statewide Oct. 1, reports William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation.

He said in order for the deer permit office to get permits mailed to applicants in time, bow hunting applications should be received in the permit office not later than Sept. 15.

Lodge also said that landowners or tenants wanting free shotgun deer permits should present applications to their local county conservation officer immediately. The permit will authorize the landowner or tenant to hunt on the property which he resides.

The conservation officer must verify that the applicant actually resides on the property where he plans to hunt. Upon verification, the application will be forwarded to the deer permit office.

Bow hunters may apply directly to the Department of Conservation, Deer Permit Office, Room 108, State Office Building, Springfield, Ill.

Dog, Master Reunited By Press Photograph

Richard Ficker, 2300 Ohio avenue, and his registered Irish setter were reunited today through a photograph published in the Press-Record Monday. The photograph was of three dogs, including the setter, which Granite City humane officer Albert Young believed were lost pets. Young said today neither of the other two dogs have yet been claimed.

Ficker said he was happy over finding the dog which had been given up for lost. The dog disappeared from the Ficker home Aug. 25 and Ficker said he feared that the dog had been picked up because of its value as a watchdog animal.

"I sure didn't expect to see her again and I want to thank the Press-Record for the photo, which they have been giving me for lost."

Young said he feared that the dog had been picked up because of its value as a watchdog animal.

County to Ask Use of GC Dog Pound

A request by Madison county to use the Granite City dog pound on a temporary basis until the county can establish a new dog control center is scheduled to be presented to the county in its regular meeting Tuesday night.

How Halbe, chairman of the county board of rabies control committee, said a contract for a dog pound was awarded to a rural area northwest of Edwardsville has expired.

John Martin of Wood River pointed out a temporary basis dog pound on a temporary basis until the county can establish a new dog control center is scheduled to be presented to the county in its regular meeting Tuesday night.

Martin said calls to pick up strays should be directed to his home in Wood River instead of the rabies control center near Edwardsville.

No Sleeping Sickness Cases in This Area

An outbreak of encephalitis in southern Illinois, the first series of cases reported in the state in 25 years, is being watched closely by authorities at St. Elizabeth Hospital in Granite City. The hospital has reported no cases in the Quad City area.

A possible victim of the malady and the only suspected case in the county reported thus far this year is Miss Dee Boulanger, 18, daughter of a Highland Park, Ill., resident. The girl was stricken March 30 and recently was transferred to the Highland Park hospital where she remains in a comatose condition.

St. Elizabeth Hospital officials said they are keeping in touch with state health authorities to learn the virus so that all possible protection can be provided in the event any cases develop in the Quad-City area.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

SEPTEMBER 4, 1954
Ground was broken yesterday for a two-story brick home tract at 1833 State street. The building when completed will be occupied by the Madison County Light and Power Co., which has a seven-year lease on the basement and ground floor of the building. The second story will be equipped for living apartments of five rooms.

The building will be located on State street and 70 feet deep. The front of the building will be of terra cotta and masonry, and the rest of the building will be constructed of masonry brick. The estimated cost is $100,000.

August C. Lohmann of Granite City, who, with members of his family, is touring Europe, refuses to be frightened by the great European war. While the entire continent is submerged in war, Mr. Lohmann is continuing his journey of inspection. A card, received by members of the family this week, says the party is safe.

Everything is in readiness for the fourteenth annual picnic of the Granite City Central Labor Council next Monday, Sept. 7, Labor Day. Committees reported all arrangements complete for the parade and picnic at the regular meeting of the council Wednesday evening.

The main celebration, aside from the industrial parade, will be held at Mohrstadt's Grove, Stallings Park, on the Illinois Traction line. Special car service will run all day.

There is persistent discussion about what office the women can vote for in the primary election Wednesday. Many are under the impression they can vote for all offices, the same as men, but this is a mistaken impression.

The work of 200 faithful Elks, who have labored night and day to bring the parade to a successful and mulligan at Stallings Park, is practically completed.

The Granite City Country Association met last evening at the rolling mill offices and made preliminary plans for the third annual golf tournament, which will be held at the skating rink, or coliseum, Dec. 15 to 18.

Graft, Chicago Machine Loom Too Large In Illinois Legislature

State Senator Paul Simon, in his frank article in the September issue of Harper's Magazine, has assembled both old and new disclosures to support the allegation in the title, "The Illinois Legislature—A Study in Corruption." His conclusion—that a machine politician of Chicago and unethical exchanges of money are proving more decisive than the public's needs and wishes—indicates that reforms are long overdue.

He charges that a third of the legislators accept payoffs, in cash or through such subterfuges as legal fees, public relations services or campaign gifts. He estimates that some of the committees can be bought on a particular issue for $200 to $500 a member. He says "fetter" bills are introduced in each session with the intention of dropping them after frightening private interests into providing payoffs. He cites with ample documentation the gangster syndicate's ability to block or defeat laws, and legislation. He notes legislators' direct connections with legislative-affected firms, some newly created to gain state contracts. And he discloses the 20,000-job state "spoils system" second only to that of Pennsylvania.

The conditions not only are bad in themselves but regularly breed more trouble for citizens and taxpayers. Simon contends that Illinois has assembled both old and new disclosures to support the allegation in the title, "The Illinois Legislature—A Study in Corruption." His conclusion—that a machine politician of Chicago and unethical exchanges of money are proving more decisive than the public's needs and wishes—indicates that reforms are long overdue.

He charges that a third of the legislators accept payoffs, in cash or through such subterfuges as legal fees, public relations services or campaign gifts. He estimates that some of the committees can be bought on a particular issue for $200 to $500 a member. He says "fetter" bills are introduced in each session with the intention of dropping them after frightening private interests into providing payoffs. He cites with ample documentation the gangster syndicate's ability to block or defeat laws, and legislation. He notes legislators' direct connections with legislative-affected firms, some newly created to gain state contracts. And he discloses the 20,000-job state "spoils system" second only to that of Pennsylvania.

The article mentions the June court order eliminating state senate geographical districting and implies that this will help improve the situation at Springfield. However, the many adverse references to Chicago seem to say just the opposite, since the net effect of a population-based senate would be increased Chicago dominance. He deplores the fact that floor leaders of the majority are "clumsy and simply amateur." "We're for it," or "We're against it" when a bill is up for a vote, with individual legislators giving little or no opportunity for the voters to decide.

While Simon does not say so, it seems clear that the task of ridding Illinois of some of the entrenched legislators may be considerable. He estimates that one earns $100,000 a session "under the table," with each legislator receiving a campaign jackpot are hard to beat. The magazine notes below the article that the Republican at-large state representative claim has purged the "west side bloc" a group of Chicago legislators who have not dropped bloc candidates from their side of the ballot.

Solutions suggested on the basis of his ten years' experience at Springfield are disclosure of lobbyists' expenditures; safeguards against conflicts of interest; accounting by legislators of the amount and source of contributions to them; more detailed newspaper coverage of the Illinois assembly; statewide publication of roll call votes; a complete daily journal of the proceedings; and other steps to encourage more public scrutiny of the deliberations at Springfield.

Also helpful would be the election of a larger number of legislators as honest, conscientious, informed and outspoken as Senator Simon.

Shootings, Late Madison Tavern Hours Continue

The shooting occurring on a Madison tavern parking lot during the wee hours of last Saturday morning again focuses attention on Madison tavern hours, which are not uniform with the rest of Madison county.

Madison is borne out by the latest example of late-night violence. All of the shooting principals, who had met in the tavern, reside in Granite City.

Do Madisonians really want their city to be a gathering point for people who have already been drinking as long as the law will allow in other places?

A killing finally led to elimination of all-night tavern operation in Venice. There have already been nearly 100 shootings in Madison. What will it take to bring about a change in the policies of its officials?

Nearly everyone has a remedy for the troubles of everyone but himself.

Sharp Difference In Voting Records Of 1964 Candidates

Now that both major political conventions have ended, it may be of interest to compare the past records of the presidential and vice-presidential nominees. They indicate that voters will have an opportunity to choose in November between two widely differing tickets.

Principal ratings agencies include the Americans for Constitutional Action, which publishes a "Consistency Index" on conservative voting issues which "rescore" national party platforms. The index of the spirit and principles of the Constitution, as these were defined by the founding fathers of the republic.

On the other side of the political spectrum, Americans for Constitutional Action publishes a "Consistency Index" on conservative voting issues which "rescore" national party platforms. The index of the spirit and principles of the Constitution, as these were defined by the founding fathers of the republic.

While different issues and standards were used, the candidate scores for the past two years proved to be consistent: those rated high (100) by ADA and COPE were generally rated low by ACA, and vice versa; those who favored well with ACA conservative policies did not rate high on the NPU scale.

Of the Republican nominees, Sen. Goldwater (Arizona) and Cong. Miller (New York) scored 100 on ADA; Sen. Goldwater, 100 on ACA; and 100 on the AFBF tabulation; and 0 and 12 on the ADA scale. Neither rose above 0 on the COPE and NPU ratings.

Sen. Humphrey (Minnesota), the Democratic vice-presidential candidate and an ADA founder, scored 0 with the ACA and AFBF and 100 with NPU, ADA and COPE. President Johnson: Democratic standard-bearer, does not appear in the list of legislative scores, but generally voted liberally while in the Senate, although taking some conservative stands in accord with Texas viewpoints.

Such high and low scores are unusual among the current crop of candidates. The overall list of senators and representatives shows many scores in the 30s, 40s, 50s and 60s, reflecting many more "middle of the road" voting tendencies.

Sad Songs And The Gridiron Game

Autumn approaches, and with it school, falling leaves and football, the sport on which Americans has "cornered the market."

Alma maters and football marching tunes will be heard later, but the gridiron song reverberating across the nation now is that of the "sad songs." We can't help but do as we did last season: we've lost eight good tackles, ten top guards, 16 great backs and 34 assistant coaches.

Somehow, practice will be completed, seasons played, and championships won. The pessimism prevailing at this stage would seem to be enough to abandon the game entirely, but the early September "pep talks" in reverse aren't meant to be taken literally.

A just criticism sometimes does an individual more good than a compliment.

Freedom's Meaning

Physical and intellectual liberty, personal dignity and self-respect are essential qualities of a contented life for self-reliant men of good will. These advantages are available only in countries where the people possess and enjoy the basic human rights of democratic freedom. (c) Freedoms Crusade

Gains In Blood Pressure Control

So much has been learned in recent years about how to treat high blood pressure that the outlook for people with hypertension is now more favorable than ever before, according to the Madison county unit of the Illinois Heart Association.

One measure of this progress: From 1950 to 1962, the death rate from heart disease associated with it, dropped more than 55% among persons 45 to 64 years of age and almost 50% among men in the same age bracket.

A booklet entitled "High Blood Pressure," available from the Heart Association, explains what is known today about high blood pressure — a condition affecting at least 5,000,000 Americans — and stresses how the patient can help his doctor treat him most effectively.

The booklet warns against trying to decide for yourself whether you have high blood pressure or not. It also warns against being overly concerned about the numbers the doctor writes down to record the height of your blood pressure.

More important than the numbers, it is how well the patient's heart and arteries stand up to stress. A blood pressure of 178/95, for example, may be better than a blood pressure of 140/90 if the patient's heart and arteries are in better shape.

For the patient with high blood pressure, it is reassuring to know that the benefits of treatment are substantial. Perhaps the treatment prescribed will require only some modification of diet. In some cases, drugs or a combination of drugs may be prescribed. Less frequently, surgery will be suggested for some forms of hypertension.

A free copy of the booklet, "High Blood Pressure," may be obtained from the Heart Association, 1308 Washington avenue, Alton, or by phoning 462-7719.

Pro, Con On Annual Sessions

Arguments for and against proposed Illinois constitutional amendments have been released by Secretary of State William H. Chamberlain.

The case for annual legislative sessions rather than the present biennial meetings is given as follows:

1. The proposed amendment would enable Illinois to have an up-to-date government. Annual sessions mean more efficient government.

2. Annual sessions are necessary to forecast accurately the state's needs. The General Assembly was in session, and over $1 million daily in excess of the budget.

3. There will be an additional cost to the taxpayer for operating the House and Senate every year instead of every other year.

4. The regular session in 1961 numbered 83,816,700 for all expenses, including employees. It is estimated that the 1963 session would cost $1 million more. Additional sessions will cost additional millions.

5. Higher Pay Problems. Annual sessions will naturally lead to increased salaries for legislators, and the sponsors of this amendment recommend that the increase in salaries. Present cost of legislators' salaries is $2,820,000 per term; it would increase to $4,000,000.

6. This amendment is not necessary because the governor has the power to call the legislature into special session at any time. It may meet at any time upon call by the governor and pass emergency legislation by a two-thirds vote.

7. Most states do not have annual sessions—22 of 50. The most recent state to try annual sessions—Nebraska—1960—returned to sessions every other year after only one year's experience.

8. There are too many members and half of all Senate members are up for re-election in each even-numbered year. There is a constant turnover of legislators. The amendment provides that in even-numbered years it should cost the people to call the legislature into special session, and revenue bills. If the state is going to incur the expense of an additional session, the legislature should be able to act on all matters.

9. There is a need for annual sessions, since the budget is prepared by experts outside the legislature. It is mandatory that the legislature be examined by legislators on the Budgetary Commission.

Operating Loan Available For Part-Time Farmers

An increasing number of farmers working off the farm part-time in Illinois are using operating credit from the Farmers Home Administration to improve the agricultural part of their earnings.

Harold F. Kiepe, county supervisor of the agency for Madison, Monroe and St. Clair counties said the Farmers Home Administration, an agency of the USDA, has recently expanded its loan assistance to families on small farms operated on a part-time basis as well as to fulltime family farmers.

Operating loans from FHA can be used for such purposes as the purchase of feed, seed and fertilizer, machinery and other equipment and to refinance debts. The interest rate is 5% and the maximum period of the loan seven years. All loans are accompanied by technical advice and supervision on farm and financial management. Loans are made only to applicants who are unable to obtain needed credit from conventional lenders. Where a conventional lender is unable to extend credit, FHA may be able to provide the financing for eligible farmers to increase their incomes.

The FHA also makes emergency loans for operating purposes at 3% interest when an area is designated an emergency area because of drought or other disaster.

Loans can also be made to purchase or enlarge family farms, to build homes in rural areas and towns of less than 2500, and for recreational purposes to supplement farm income.

The main office is in the Belleville post office. Office hours in the village post office every Monday from 8 a.m. to noon. Kiepe maintains contact office hours for Madison county on the first and third Tuesdays of each month from 10 a.m. to noon at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in Edwardsville.

IRS Studying Compliance With Highway Use Tax Law

District Director of Internal Revenue Jay C. Philpott said today that a close look is being taken at compliance with the provisions of the federal highway use tax laws by owners of trucks and buses.

Lists of motor vehicles are being compiled and will be compared with the federal highway use tax returns filed with Internal Revenue. The purpose of the comparison is to determine not only if a return has been filed by owners of taxable vehicles, but also the correctness of returns that are filed.

Philpott said "taxable gross weight" is the basis of the federal highway use tax. He drew attention to the difference in weight determinations used by the various states and taxable gross weight as defined by the federal highway use tax law.

Taxable gross weight depends generally on number of axles and empty weight. Factors such as the weight of a full load of fuel, lubricants and water may not be included in state weight use tax purposes, however, they should be considered in determining a vehicle's empty weight.

Further information on the provisions of the highway use tax law is contained in Publication No. 349, "Federal Use Tax on Trucks, Truck Tractors and Buses." This booklet is available upon request from the Internal Revenue Service at no charge.

Ceremony Friday For Phone Bldg.

State Rep. Lloyd "Curly" Harris and Village Mayor Thomas Staloff of Pontoon Beach will break ground Friday for the new $1,185,000 Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. building to be constructed at Pontoon road and Route 111. The dedication ceremony will get under way at 11 a.m. and will be attended by telephone company representatives, city and village authorities and civic club delegates.

Contract for the building has been awarded to the L. Wolf General Contractors of Granite City. Preliminary work of staking and leveling the ground was begun Wednesday. Construction work is scheduled to start Monday.

William L. King, district manager of Southwestern Bell, said plans for the new building result from a rapid growth of the Pontoon Beach-Mitchell area in which the structure will be located, making it apparent that the demand for telephone service will outstrip present facilities in a short time. The new mechanical facilities will be designed almost entirely for new service, King said.

The new building and installation of equipment is expected to be completed and ready for use by October 1965. Under present plans, not more than 1900 present Granite City lines will be transferred to the new equipment when it is completed. All of these will be located in the area close to the new exchange building.

Federal Farm Loan Procedure Is Set

Farmers in Madison county who suffered damage to crops as a result of the recent drought, and who need emergency credit to resume normal farming operations, may apply for loans at the county Farmers Home Administration office, Belleville, Harold F. Kiepe, county supervisor, said today.

The agency may advance funds for operating expenses. The interest rate is 3%.

To be eligible a farmer must be primarily engaged in farming and have reasonable prospects for success in the farming operation he plans to carry on with the loan. In addition he must have suffered a substantial loss from the drought and must be unable to obtain the credit he needs from other sources.

Social Security Problems Reviewed at Any Time

In cooperation with the Social Security Administration, the Quad-Cities Associated Retailers & Wholesalers Association, Inc., is publishing a series of questions and answers on social security subjects.

Anyone with a question may send it to the Social Security Administration, District Office, East St. Louis, and a reply will be made to the individual.

This series of questions and answers is prepared to stimulate interest in "Know Your Social Security Day," to be observed here Friday, Sept. 11.

Sample questions follow: Q. I am a farmer and employer. I know I should have reported my wages, but I haven't because they refuse to give me their social security number, and object to having the tax withheld from their wages. What must I do?

A. Report the employee by name and address with the amount of wages paid during the year. Lack of consent of the worker or a social security account number does not release the employer from his obligation to furnish a report of the earnings and pay the tax promptly.

Q. How disabled must I be to qualify for disability insurance benefits?

A. Social Security disability insurance benefits may be paid to a worker whose illness or injuries are so severe that he is unable to "engage in any substantial gainful activity."

Q. Do I have to report and pay the social security tax on the amount I pay my babysitter?

A. Yes, if you pay your "sitter" or any other household employee $50 or more in cash wages in any three-month period beginning in January, April, July or October, you are required by law to report these earnings for social security purposes.

Q. I am an employer of some farm workers who do not work steady. Who must I report?

A. You must report all the employees involved in a collision Monday afternoon at Nameoki road and Madison avenue were auto driven by Phillip Field, 32, of St. Peters, Mo., and Henry Gant, 67, of 2823 Wayne avenue. Police said Field was making a right turn when he stopped suddenly for an auto leaving a driveway and the rear of the Field auto was struck by the Gant car.

The group, after organization is complete, expects to establish a clubroom location to provide a place where retired workers may meet, renew acquaintances, watch TV and conduct organized programs of social activities, Hagnauer said.

WATER for BETTER LIVING

What about water supply? The question is asked thousands of times each year by industries seeking favorable locations for new plants. Usually it's the No. 1 question. If the answer is favorable it could mean new jobs, payrolls, and tax revenues to the community. If unfavorable, industries usually turn elsewhere and great opportunities are lost. Your water system is your community's best friend in the competition for new industry and new opportunities for better living for everybody.
